

Are you looking for ways to make yourself more marketable in the hiring realm of the wealth management industry?

Would you like to be able to set yourself apart from the hundreds of other job seekers in the wealth management industry by knowing the current landscape, including products and the lingo being used?

9 Ways Investnet Institute on Campus can Help you:

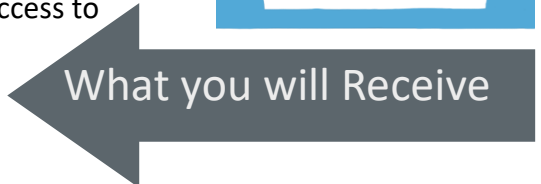

Provide an understanding of the ever-changing products and technologies being used in the industry 1.	Give you an understanding of the current global landscape of the business 2.	Keep you current with timely updates and information 3.
Inform you of the current job possibilities within the industry; learn what career paths are “hot” and most desirable 4.	Provide you with the tools needed to allow you to converse intelligently 5.	Give you insights to help you interview well 6.
Set you apart from your peers by having the completion of this course on your resume and LinkedIn account 7.	Give you access to current industry leaders through our live streaming webinars 8.	Put your experience directly in front of relevant hiring managers for internships and jobs 9.

Each class is just 1 hour long and including tests. That means that in just seven hours, you can get a leg up on others looking to start a career in the financial industry. You will also have access to three hours of optional learning modules to propel yourself even further.

After completing the course, you will receive professionally written language to include in your resume, a badge of completion, and access to our Internship and Resume Hub to put your experience directly in front of hiring managers.

What People are Saying

Straight from an employer's mouth:

"Students have a leg up just by knowing the products, industry terms, and definitions alone."

Students like you are saying:

"Little to none of this information is provided in my college courses, and this will be a big help in the future."

I very much enjoy the diversity of learning provided through this education program. If you want to learn through reading the outlines or the scripts, or if you are better suited to learning by ear, its up to you. I find that very beneficial to meet the different needs of users. Thank you."

"Content was presented well; it was organized and clear, and got into more detail about the particular industry and the different types of managed account structures than any of my finance classes have. Great info to know now."

"As a senior, I have not yet been introduced to these basic investment strategies. This program will be a big help in the future."

"Material is concise and relevant. So far, I couldn't be enjoying this course more. No wasted time and lots of great information."

"Using case studies is a great learning tool."

"I personally loved how interactive it was; I was sufficiently prepped to complete the test."
